

Exhibit B

Cool Keeper Program Website Content

Ex. B – Cool Keeper Program Website Content

As indicated under Schedule 106, the Company will maintain the following information about incentive amounts, participation requirements and procedures for the Cool Keeper Program on a dedicated page of the Pacific Power Cool Keeper website:

Incentives
Incentive Amount	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cooling units up to 15 tons: $6 bill credit paid monthly during the dispatch season, for a total of $30 a year • Cooling units up to 20 tons: $12 bill credit paid monthly during the dispatch season, for a total of $60 a year
Participation Requirements
Customer eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Any Pacific Power customer may participate, subject to the requirements of Schedule 106
Equipment eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Central air conditioner or heat pump up to 20 tons • Must be compatible with the load control switch provided by the program. Program technicians will inspect applicant equipment to determine if it is eligible.
Eligible area	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The program may limit participation to select areas within the Pacific Power service area. These areas will be described on the website.
Procedures
Application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Customers can apply using an online application form or via phone
Dispatch parameters	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dispatch period: May 1 through September 30 • Available dispatch hours: 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. • Maximum dispatch hours: 100 hours per year • Dispatch days: Monday to Friday, excluding holidays • Dispatch duration: Events limited to four hours per day • Dispatch is instant; customers will not receive notification of dispatches
Opt-outs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Customers may opt-out in advance of potential events on a specific day by calling the phone number provided on the website, at least 1 hours prior to the desired opt-out period. • Customers may opt-out of up to 2 days per year

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS

System Emergency Dispatch: In the event of a system emergency, Pacific Power may, at its discretion, expand the Dispatch Parameters beyond the parameters listed. Emergency events may be used to satisfy requirements of the North American Electric Reliability Corporation standard BAL-002-WECC-2 for Contingency Reserve Obligation and may be deployed when the utility is experiencing a qualifying event as defined by the Western Power Pool.