On August 28, 2013, Frontier made two replacement tariff filings to correct errors in its initial filings. Collectively, these filings reflect classification of certain telecommunications services as competitive. Frontier summarized the filings as follows:

- c. Reissue the General and Local Exchange Tariff, WN U-17, with appropriate section numbering, identifying all tariff sheets as “Original” and removing Competitive Retail Services. Competitive Retail Services are included in a new Service Catalog;
 - d. Withdraw Tariff WN U-18, the Company’s Network Interconnection Access Service tariff, and replace it with a new Network Interconnection Access Service, Service Catalog;

 - f. Withdraw Tariff WN U-21, the Company’s Unbundled Network Elements tariff, and replace it with a new Unbundled Network Elements, Service Catalog;
