To Whom It May Concern:

We have been in business since 1908 and operating under the State of Washington WUTC laws since they were first started.

During the time frame in question, we moved our operations to a new address and we are sure that we did not receive all of our mail during that period. Also, our bookkeeper was on vacation during that time and we had someone else filling in for her and know that some of the mail got misplaced.

Since our return was only received six days after your enforcement date and taking into account our long record of being a carrier in the State of Washington, I feel a fine is not justified.

Please remove these penalties from our account.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS CARRIER:

Tacoma Moving & Storage Co.
1314 E. 26th Street
Tacoma, WA 98421

The Commission believes that you have committed one or more violations of Washington Utilities and Transportation rules; specifically WAC 480-15-480 which requires household goods carriers to furnish annual reports to the Commission no later than May 1 each year. Despite repeated notice of this obligation, you did not file an annual report until July 7, 2004. As a result, the Commission hereby notifies you that it has assessed penalties against you in the amount of $100.00. The basis for this penalty assessment is as follows:

On March 9, 2004, the Commission mailed 2003 Annual Report forms and 2004 Regulatory Fee packets to household goods carriers in Washington State. A letter signed by Carole Washburn instructed companies to file annual reports by May 1, 2004. Companies requesting an extension were asked to do so prior to May 1, providing a reason for the requested extension.

On June 8, 2004, a letter signed by Carole Washburn was sent to each household goods carrier that had not filed an annual report by May 1, 2004. The letter stated that Staff intended to recommend enforcement action, including possible penalties, for any company that failed to file a completed annual report by July 1, 2004.

In July 2004, Licensing Services Staff reviewed annual reports and regulatory fees for household goods carriers, and compiled a list of companies that were out of compliance. Staff identified that as of May 1, 2004, Tacoma Moving & Storage Co. (Tacoma Moving), had not filed a 2003 annual report.

The Commission mailed the Company a letter on June 8, stating that Staff intended to recommend enforcement action, including possible penalties, for any company that failed to file a completed annual report by July 1, 2004. Subsequently, Tacoma Moving filed the annual report on July 7, 2004.

Penalties are due and payable upon receipt of this penalty notice. If for any reason you believe the violations described did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations. If you have an explanation as to why the violations occurred, or have other facts you believe the Commission should have considered, RCW 80.04.405 provides that you may make application for mitigation of this penalty. To do so, complete the enclosed mitigation form and return it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days of your receipt of this penalty notice. You may, although you are not required to, present your request for mitigation at a hearing. The Commission will consider your plea and notify you of its determination.

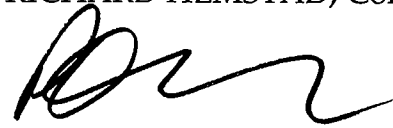

If you would like a hearing to contest either the occurrence of the violations or the amount of the penalty, you may request one in your request for hearing or mitigation. If you request a hearing for either reason, please state why you believe a hearing is called for in your circumstances.

Failure to request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations or the amount of the penalty, return the mitigation plea, or pay the amount due within 15 days will cause the Commission to refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection. Suit may then be brought against you and after trial, judgment may be entered against you.

DATED at Olympia, Washington and effective this ^{17th} day of September 2004.
