Dear Sir or Madam,

Due to an oversight, I filed my Annual Report late, on July 1, 2006. I received the late fee notice of $100.00 a few days after filing the report.

My business only grosses about $100.00 a month, after expenses. I have had to take on another part-time job, because our business continues to loose ground. Also, I have had to care for an elderly parent who has had several surgeries over the past year. Life for me has been very hectic this last year.

I respectfully apologize for the lateness of my filing and ask that you please consider lowering or waving the late filing fee.

Sincerely,

Debra K. McNamara
