SCHEDULE 15
LOW-INCOME ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Low-Income Assistance Programs consist of two programs, Lifeline Assistance and Washington Telephone Assistance Program (WTAP). These programs were developed to reduce rates for low income customers. The Company participates in both of these assistance programs to increase the availability of telecommunications services to all consumers in its serving areas. The structure of each program is outlined in the following paragraphs. (T)

1. Lifeline Assistance

a. General

Lifeline Assistance reduces an eligible customer's monthly rates for local service. (T)

b. Regulations

1) Federal Lifeline Assistance is available to all residential customers who meet the eligibility requirements stated in 47 CFR 54.409. Both federal Lifeline and WTAP Assistance is available to all residential customers who meet the eligibility requirement stated in 47 CFR 54.409 or WAC 388-273-0020. (T)

a) Beginning October 1, 2000, eligibility has been expanded to permit low-income individuals living on tribal lands to establish their income eligibility by certifying participation in one of the following federal assistance programs: (1) Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance; (2) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) tribally-administered block grant program; (3) Head Start Programs (under income qualifying eligibility provision only); or (4) National School Lunch Program (free meals program only), or Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations. (T)

1) As a participant in Lifeline Assistance, customers are eligible to receive Toll Restriction Service at no charge. This service will only be provided at the customer's request. (T)
