I have no record I received anything else other than our normal notice we received in November with the scale late payment schedule attached to our blank Annual Report forms, which I have filed out and have sent in today via fax.

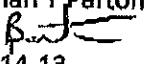

I run a small fleet that runs mostly inside Leavenworth's immediate area, qualifying for urban transport and outside the commissions' dealings, but we still do some work outside and want to do more in the future. This time of year is our "down season", and pushes me outside the my company for employment make ends meet and even more challenging to stay up on all paperwork

Obviously, I wouldn't knowingly ignore such a huge penalty and don't understand how I missed that. Normally important notices that were apparently (according to my violation) sent out in January that represented "new fines being accessed," at least I was unaware that these laws and now are being enforced across the board according to Rae Lynn Carnes whom I spoke to earlier today. I believe that it should require registered mail, in order to, insure every company does receive notice of the impending violations due to the severity of the fine. The registered mail with the fine was my first understanding of the violation!

Thank you for your time
