COMMUNICATIONS SECTION

To Whom It May Concern,

On behalf of the East County Senior Center I, Jan Powers, am asking that you forgive the late penalties that have incurred due to the tardiness of this report due to my oversight.

When I received the annual report I placed it in the folder I always put my quarterly reports in until they come due. Because the due date for this report is a month after our quarterlies are due I neglected to go back to that folder thinking I had completed all of the reports that were due.

If you look at our past records I believe that you will find that historically I have filed this report in a timely manner and take that into consideration.

Sincerely,

Jan Powers

7.30.13 P.S. This is a copy of the original letter I sent. I wrote this & filed the report immediately after my mistake had been brought to my attention.

Thank you once more for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
Jan Powers
