To whom it may concern,

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated June 4, 2014.

I would like to explain the circumstances that caused me to file my annual report late. Just prior to filing, my wife surprised me with a vacation for our 21st anniversary. I completed the report the day before we departed and unfortunately learned that I was out of stamps even though I had just purchased a book the day prior for this reason. My graduating senior, not realizing I needed them, used all the stamps for her graduation announcements. I left money for stamps and asked my daughters to mail the report while I was gone and unfortunately they did not realize the importance of doing this in a timely manner. When I arrived home, the envelope was still on the counter.

I have attached my itinerary and I can provide further travel documentation if needed to show that I was indeed out of the country.

I take reporting my business very seriously and am embarrassed to be providing an excuse. It is very unlike me and I hope you can understand. As you can tell, business has been slow. A $500 fine would cripple my business. I've never been late before and if I hadn't gone on vacation I would have not been late this time either. I would greatly appreciate it if the commission could understand my situation and waive the penalty. I can assure you this will never happen again.

Sincerely,

Joe Ness

According to Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) records, you have violated Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-480, which requires household goods carrier companies to file their annual reports and pay regulatory fees each year by May 1. You did not file an annual report or pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2014.

Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.080 authorizes the Commission to assess penalties of $100 for violations of Commission rules. Each violation is a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance is a separate and distinct violation. The Commission interprets noncompliance with WAC 480-15-480 beyond May 1 as a continuing violation, and assesses penalties of $100 for each day a company fails to file its report or pay its regulatory fees after that date.

As a result, the Commission has assessed penalties against you in the amount of $500 on the following basis:

On February 28, 2014, the Commission mailed the 2013 annual report forms and the 2014 regulatory fee packets to all household goods carrier companies registered in Washington. The instructions page for the annual report form instructed these companies to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2014. The instructions page also stated that failure to file the annual report by May 1 would result in penalties. The deadline for requesting an extension to file your annual report was April 17. You did not request an extension.

On May 8, 2014, Aloha Joe Movers, LLC filed its 2013 annual report and paid its 2014 regulatory fee. May 8 is 5 business days from May 1, resulting in a total penalty of $500.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. The Commission will grant that request only if material issues of law or fact require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. A request for a hearing must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request.

Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse or reduce the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. A request for mitigation must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. See RCW81.04.405.

If you properly present your request for a hearing and the Commission grants that request, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your dispute of the violation or application for mitigation in a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider the evidence and will notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection, which may file suit in state court to collect the penalty. The Commission may also initiate proceedings under WAC 480-15-450 to cancel your permit to operate as a household goods carrier in Washington.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective June 4, 2014.

DENNIS J. MOSS
Administrative Law Judge
