Re: Penalty Assessment: TV - 140991

Dear Judge Friedlander,

We are in receipt of above Penalty Assessment on June 9th regarding the delay on the filing annual report. For the following reasons, we would like to request for mitigation of the amount.

The Annual Report of Starving Students, Inc. was filed on May 14th and the payment was cleared by the WUTC on the May 15th. Here we attached a copy of the report and a copy of the check.

We had no intention to violate the Revised Code of Washington 81.04.080. As a moving company in business for over 40 years, we have been in compliance of the state law of Washington and we will continue to do so. The report was delayed due to our overwhelming working schedule.

For any inconvenience due to the delay, we are willing to pay for the late fee according to W.A.C. 480-15-480, which is 2% of the amount due, $50.58.

Please consider our sincere request for mitigation. If you would like to contact us for further discussion, please contact Jean Fria, at (310)235-6683, ext. 269.

Sincerely,

Jie Li

NOTICE OF PENALTIES INCURRED AND DUE FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS AND RULES

PENALTY ASSESSMENT: TV-140991
PENALTY AMOUNT: $1,000

Starving Students, Inc.
1850 Sawtelle Blvd Suite 300
Los Angeles, CA 90025

According to Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) records, you have violated Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-480, which requires household goods carrier companies to file their annual reports and pay regulatory fees each year by May 1. You did not file an annual report or pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2014.

Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 81.04.080 authorizes the Commission to assess penalties of $100 for violations of Commission rules. Each violation is a separate and distinct offense and, in the case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance is a separate and distinct violation. The Commission interprets noncompliance with WAC 480-15-480 beyond May 1 as a continuing violation, and assesses penalties of $100 for each day a company fails to file its report or pay its regulatory fees after that date.

As a result, the Commission has assessed penalties against you in the amount of $1,000 on the following basis:

On February 28, 2014, the Commission mailed the 2013 annual report forms and the 2014 regulatory fee packets to all household goods carrier companies registered in Washington. The instructions page for the annual report form instructed these companies to file annual reports and pay regulatory fees by May 1, 2014. The instructions page also stated that failure to file the annual report by May 1 would result in penalties. The deadline for requesting an extension to file your annual report was April 17. You did not request an extension.

As of May 15, 2014, Starving Students, Inc. has not filed its complete 2013 annual report. May 15 is 10 business days from May 1, resulting in a total penalty of $1,000.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation did not occur, you may request a hearing to contest the penalty assessment. The Commission will grant that request only if material issues of law or fact require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. A request for a hearing must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request.
