RCW 9A.72.020:

“Perjury in the first degree. (1) A person is guilty of perjury in the first degree if in any official proceeding he makes a materially false statement which he knows to be false under an oath required or authorized by law. (2) Knowledge of the materiality of the statement is not an element of this crime, and the actor’s mistaken belief that his statement was not material is not a defense to a prosecution under this section. (3) Perjury in the first degree is a class B felony.”

RE: Application for Mitigation:

Three violations for CFR Part 391.51: Before our review, upon hire to be a driver of a company vehicle, we would contact our insurance company for a MVR Report, we misunderstood that the MVR Report is NOT considered a Driving Abstract even though the two show the exact same violations.

47 violations of CFR 395.8- ROD (Records of Duty): Most of our business is Local work, we misread the manual as we thought you only had to complete an ROD if we were performing an Intrastate or Interstate move (Anything above 55 miles)

Sincerely,

Matt Collins
