Regarding Penalty assessment : TE-151024

Respectfully requesting That penalty of $1000. Be waved

Being small business only have part time need for book keeping. My Booker also has other clients and a job as well. He normally comes in for a half to three quarters of a day every 3rd week of the month to do positing and pay bills. Also take of taxes and reports such as this utc reposrt.

He wasn't able to come in the 3rd week of April due to not feeling well and his other job. This report was on his things to do and would have been taken care of before the 1th of may. Soon as it came to my attention that this report had not been made I got right on it got it faxed in that very afternoon.

Being a small business this pretty sever penalty. Respectfully requesting it be waved. From now on personally will be watching maters such as these that need immediate attention and have dead lines and get them on calendar to be done before deadlines come due.

Thank you for your consideration of my request

The reason I was unable to complete the Transportation Department report on time was because of a conflict with my other job that delayed my work day in Renton and then the day I was supposed to work I was sick. This delayed the completion of the report and Bill ended up completing it. I did not work at all until the last week of May as a result of conflict. The missed deadline was a result of circumstances beyond Bill's control.

If there is a reason for the violation that you think should excuse or reduce the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of this penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. The Commission will grant a request for a hearing only if material issues of law or fact require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. Any request for mitigation must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. See RCW 81.04.405.

If you properly present your request for a hearing and the Commission grants that request, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your dispute of the violation or application for mitigation in a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding, before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider the evidence and will notify you of his or her decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this notice to do one of the following:

- Pay the amount due.
- Request a hearing to contest the occurrence of the violations.
- Request mitigation to contest the amount of the penalty.

Please indicate your selection on the enclosed form and send it to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, Post Office Box 47250, Olympia, Washington 98504-7250, within FIFTEEN (15) days after you receive this notice.

If you do not act within 15 days, the Commission may refer this matter to the Office of the Attorney General for collection, which may file suit in state court to collect the penalty. The Commission may also initiate proceedings under WAC 480-30-171 to revoke your authority to provide charter & excursion services in Washington.

DATED at Olympia, Washington, and effective June 9, 2015.

Administrative Law Judge
