SCHEDULE 1 (Continued)

BASIC EXCHANGE SERVICE
LOCAL SERVICE EXCHANGE ACCESS LINE AND TRUNK RATES

CONDITIONS (Continued):

7. Touch Calling Service is available on all exchange access service lines and trunks served by any of the Company's central offices. There is no additional, recurring monthly rate associated with Touch Calling Service.
8. PBX Trunk rates apply to any Local Service Exchange Access Line or Trunk that terminates on a manual or automatic private branch exchange system; provided, however, that Business One Party rates (rather than PBX Line rates) shall continue to apply to any Local Service Exchange Access Line or Trunk that is in service on May 1, 1999, for so long as that line or trunk remains in service, at the same location for the same Subscriber of record, without DID Service (as offered in Schedule 33 of this Tariff).
9. Subject to the availability of suitable Company facilities, PBX Trunks furnished wholly by the Company will, at the Customer's request, be configured for either "ground start" or "loop start". Any Customer-initiated change from "ground start" to "loop start" or from "loop start" to "ground start" will be deemed to be a change in service configuration and applicable non-recurring charges from Schedule 10 will apply.
10. The minimum service period for PBX Trunks, other than PBX Trunks equipped for "loop start" without DID Service (as offered in Schedule 33 of this Tariff), is three (3) years for each two PBX Trunks or fraction thereof. The termination liability as specified under Rates and Charges above in this Schedule will apply thereto and be reduced by 1/36 for each month the PBX Trunks associated therewith are in service; provided, however, that such minimum service period and such termination liability shall not apply to PBX Trunks that are discontinued by the Company due to a change or discontinuance of capabilities of the Company's installed facilities or software utilized in the provision of such PBX Trunks, as referenced in Condition 11 of this Schedule.
11. Applicable non-recurring charges from Schedule 10 apply. (K)*
