Yeah, no problem. And we can definitely refund you, we only keep your application fee if we have to dismiss the application. Just let me know for sure that you'd like to withdraw, and you can reapply at any time.

Hello Mike,

I have been working hard to resolve this insurance issue and I've not had any luck so far.

Can I Re-apply when I have this figured out?

I know there is no refund so I won't ask god one.

Sorry for taking up your time.

Respectfully,

Vernita Adolf
