3 The administrative rules at issue are WAC § 480-07-340, -355.

4 PCA manufactures and distributes paper products in the United States, including sheet papers, containerboard and corrugated containers, and market pulp. PCA is Pacific Power & Light Company's ("Pacific Power" or the "Company") largest customer in Washington, purchasing both power and power delivery services at its mill in Wallula, Washington. PCA is a party to the Company's current general rate case proceeding, Docket UE-191024, as well as the Company's current power cost adjustment proceeding, Docket UE-190458

5 PCA has a substantial interest in Pacific Power's petition for the deferral of costs associated with the impacts of COVID-19. As Pacific Power's largest Washington customer, PCA could be substantially and directly affected by the outcome of this proceeding. Thus, PCA requests leave to intervene in this Docket to represent its interests which are directly affected by Pacific Power's petition in this Docket.

6 PCA's legal counsel and experts have extensive experience in proceedings before the Commission involving Pacific Power tariffs, rules, and rate schedules. PCA has participated in numerous Company proceedings, most recently in UE-140762, U-151958, UE-152253, UE-161204, UE-170717, UE-180778, UE-181042, UE-190458, and UE-191024. PCA's intervention in this proceeding will assist the Commission in resolving the issues and will not unreasonably broaden the issues, burden the record, or delay this proceeding.

7 As described above, PCA has a direct and substantial interest in this proceeding that will not be adequately represented by any other party, and may be affected by any Commission determination made in connection with this proceeding. Thus, it is in the public interest to allow PCA to intervene in this proceeding.

8 WHEREFORE, PCA respectfully petitions the Commission for leave to intervene in this proceeding.

Dated this 14th day of April, 2020.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVISON VAN CLEVE, P.C.
