To whom it may concern, I have known David Lu for many years out of all those years he has always been a hard worker. When he sets his mind to a goal he will do nothing until he has accomplished it. David is not only a hard worker but always treats everyone with kindness and respect, always going beyond for others.
I cannot say enough good things, I am sure everyone else will tell you the same who has crossed paths with him.

David Lu is a responsible business owner, he's ambitious and hardworking. I support David's moving company because he isn't sloppy, if I can choose someone to run a business it will be David. He's super professional & good with time managing.
