Re: 4 Seasons Junk Removal LLC Solid Waste Application Request for Dismissal

On January 17, 2023, 4 Seasons Junk Removal LLC submitted applications for a solid waste certificate and a common carrier permit. The company owner has limited English language skills, so with a Russian interpreter, I determined that the nature of his business required the common carrier permit, but not the solid waste certificate. After being advised through the interpreter that he did not need the solid waste certificate, the company owner verbally requested for the solid waste application to be dismissed.
