10	Q. And just, again, for the violations found in	11	JUDGE PEARSON: It did
11	this subsequent investigation were repeat violations?	12	MR. PERKINSON: I mean, there was $800 of
12	A. Yeah, there were additional repeat violations	13	penalties issued. So the medical certificate violation
13	that were found. The major one would be the medical	14	and additional, a more administrative violation. So the
14	certificates violation.	15	primary one would be the medical certificate.
15	Q. Okay. And then you're familiar with MVP's	16	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. And
16	history of, I guess, paying its penalties?	17	MR. PERKINSON: But there were additional
17	A. Yes.
18	Q. Okay. And Staff recommends that the Commission	18	administrative repeat violations.
19	cancel MVP's permit, correct?	19	JUDGE PEARSON: And what happened with that
20	A. That's correct, yes.	20	penalty assessment?
21	Q. And could you briefly explain why?	21	MR. PERKINSON: The Commission issued the
22	A. The I guess the pattern of behavior that's	22	penalty assessment, and I believe to date, the company

1	JUDGE PEARSON: Did you make that payment in
2	response to Staff's motion when you received the motion
3	to cancel the penalty
4	MR. GARCIA: When I saw cancellation and it
5	was $1900, I pulled everything I had and put it together
6	and tried to pay on time.
7	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So you weren't aware
8	that that balance was outstanding or you were because
9	MR. GARCIA: I wasn't aware that I owed
10	JUDGE PEARSON: Don't talk at the same time
11	as me
12	MR. GARCIA: Sorry.
13	JUDGE PEARSON: because the court
14	reporter cannot follow that.
15	So Ms. Yeomans told you that there was a
16	balance when you had your review in January, correct?
17	MR. GARCIA: That's correct.
18	JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So you did know that
19	there was an outstanding balance?
20	MR. GARCIA: I did not.
21	JUDGE PEARSON: You didn't.
22	MR. GARCIA: But I did know that I owed
23	$300. That's when I learned about it.
24	JUDGE PEARSON: You thought you only owed
25	$300 total?
	Page 42
1	MR. GARCIA: My assumption was that when we
2	came here with Erik Hawkins and did a testimony, I I
3	was under the impression that our our penalty went

Page 43 1 medical card when he was even out of town, and that's 2 when I got hit, when Sandra did the review, and we can go over that. JUDGE PEARSON: So you're saying that the medical cards were expired? 5 MR. GARCIA: Mm-hmm. 6 JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. So they weren't timely renewed? 8 MR. GARCIA: Exactly. But we're talking 9 about a two-day, 48 hours, versus not having them period 10 for five employees, that's not what I had. JUDGE PEARSON: No, I --12 MR. GARCIA: That's not the operation that 13 14 I'm doing. JUDGE PEARSON: I understand that, and those 15 are actually two different violations. And I'm 16 confident that your company was correctly cited for the failure to renew rather than failing to have the medical card altogether. Those are two separate violations. MR. GARCIA: I understand. It just sounds 20 like -- over the phone, it sounds like we failed to 21 operate period, and that's not even clearly what Sandra 2.2 came over and did an investigation on. So hearing what I heard over the intercom is kind of a lot different from 6100 to $3,000. That's what I thought we came here for. So I thought we paid the $3,000 on time and we were done. That's what I knew. JUDGE PEARSON: Okay. MR. GARCIA: And then Sandra explained to me that I owed $3,000 and I was really confused, but I knew my name was on the -- the business and I owed the money. 11 So there was communication with somebody about paying

I'm -- actually if it's -- if it's not an automatic payment, if it's something I didn't set it in there to give me a reminder, that's 100 percent my fault. But 15 when I got the cancellation notice of $1900 that was remaining, I paid that. When someone called me from the 17 UTC and said I owed $800 and I needed to pay that, I 18 $300 and I made a payment. I missed the next month.

19 paid that

So I'm trying my best. That's what I can 20 say. And as far as the medical card situation, like I 22 just have to disagree with what was said over the phone, 23 because if you really look at it, I did have a medical card for each driver. It was just dated wrong. And so there was a two-day window of my driver not having a

1 with her from -- from now. So I just kind of take than what I heard with Sandra in my whole communication that -- you know, I'll just take that as a learning

example and go from there. 3

JUDGE PEARSON: Yes. 4

MR. GARCIA: But it just sounds really 5

6 horrible.

7 JUDGE PEARSON: Well, rest assured that I

8 understand the difference between the two violation categories, and I understand the difference between not 9 having a medical card whatsoever and not knowing that

that's required versus allowing one to lapse and there being a short period of time when drivers are out on the road while their card is expired. They're both risky, they're both safety violations, but I appreciate the distinction that you're making between the two 16 categories and violations.

17 MR. GARCIA: Okay.

JUDGE PEARSON: Okay? So is there anything 18

else that you want to say? 19

MR. GARCIA: Only thing else I want to say 20

21 is that I -- I just want you guys to understand I'm

22 trying my best. I understand that I had a business partner that was, you know, kind of misleading me in a 24 way, and I do apologize. You know, 2018 will be 25 entirely different when it's 100 percent my company.
