UTIL. AND TRANS COMMISSION

Dear Ms. Washburn:

Enclosed are two amendments to the interconnection agreement between Verizon Northwest Inc. and Broadwing Communications, LLC and filled-in Commission submission forms for these amendments. While the amendments were executed in December 2006 by Broadwing and January 2007 by Verizon, they were not filed before now because after the signing Broadwing expressed concern as to whether these amendments (and similar interconnection agreement amendments for other states) properly reflected the intentions and agreement of the parties. The parties have now resolved this concern, and, after reviewing this filing package, have decided that the amendments do not need to be revised, re-executed or re-dated, and have released the amendments for filing with the Commission.

Please call me at 425-261-5006 if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Richard E. Potter
