Greetings Judge Caille:

Per our discussion this morning, this is the response that you requested by email.

Melinda Davison asked me to contact you regarding your email pertaining to the above-referenced case. We apologize for the delay in responding, as our client has been out of town. Weyerhaeuser has agreed to waive the initial order on settlement so that it can go straight to the Commission for decision.

Thank you and please let us know if you have any questions.

Would the parties be willing to waive an initial order on the settlement so that it can go straight to the Commission for decision?
