

6. In the event that the Commission should reject the Settlement Agreement, or modify it in ways unacceptable to the Signing Parties, a prehearing conference could be immediately convened to establish a schedule for the litigation of unresolved matters in these dockets.

7. While not requesting an additional prehearing conference, the Signing Parties are prepared to participate in a prehearing conference (telephonic would be acceptable) at the Commission's earliest convenience, in order to further discuss matters addressed in this Joint Motion.

Respectfully submitted this 12<sup>+4</sup> day of August, 2005.
