Subject: Docket No. UT-073040

Dear Ms. Washburn:

On or about August 30, 2007, NTCH-WA, Inc., d/b/a Cleartalk ("Cleartalk") submitted a response to questions to Mr. Bob Shirley via e-mail regarding the above-referenced docket. Cleartalk inadvertently included confidential and proprietary information in those responses without designating them as "confidential" pursuant to WAC 480-07-160. Accordingly, Cleartalk hereby requests that the Commission return or destroy all copies of the filing last week and the substitute for that filing the attached filing.

Enclosed with the paper copy of this filing are the responses with confidential data copied onto yellow paper, designated on each page as "Confidential Per WAC 480-07-160," and contained in a sealed envelope marked "Confidential Per WAC 480-07-160." For the electronic version of this filing, the electronic file contains, as part of the file name, the word "CONFIDENTIAL." Additionally, each page in the electronic file is labeled as "Confidential Per WAC 480-07-160." Further, an electronic copy of the entire questionnaire with the confidential responses redacted is attached for purposes of the Commission's publicly available files.

Pursuant to RCW Section 80.04.095, enclosures designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" contain valuable commercial information, including network configuration and design information that should not be subject to inspection or copying under RCW Chapter 42.56. Moreover, the responses designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" contain valuable formulae, designs, and research data, the disclosure
