Item 18 -- Billing, Advance Billing, and Payment Delinquency Dates

Billing period. A company may bill its customers for one, two, or three months of service.

Advance billing and payment delinquency dates. The following chart defines the maximum period allowed for advance billing and the date when a bill may be considered delinquent:

Billing Period	Maximum Advance Billing Allowed	Delinquency Date
One month's service (monthly)	No advance billing allowed	May not be less than 21 days after the date the bill is mailed
Two months' service	One month's advance billing allowed	May not be until the last day of the second month
Three months' service	Two month's advance billing allowed	May not be until the last day of the third month

The billing period chosen by the company operating under this tariff for its residential solid waste accounts is: Two months' service. (C)

Late charges. Customers with past due accounts after the delinquency dates specified in the chart above will be charged a late fee of 1% per month on outstanding balances. The minimum charge per month is $1.00.

From June 2009 through December 2009, customers may be billed on a two month or three month basis. By December 2009, all residential bills will be for two months.
