RE: Tip Fee for Municipal Solid Waste
Carothers Road Transfer Station
Whitman County, Washington

Effective July 1, 2013, the "tipping" fee for municipal solid waste at the Whitman County Transfer Station will be reduced from $103 per ton to $98 per ton. On July 1, 2012 Whitman County executed a new Transportation and Disposal contract with Allied Waste. Whitman County's Municipal Solid Waste is now transported by rail with no fuel surcharge, reducing Whitman County's transport and disposal costs. Whitman County would like to pass this savings onto the customers of Whitman County. This notice provides approximately 60 days notice, so that you may take appropriate action with respect to your own operation.

Thank you for your valued service to the residents of Whitman County.

Sincerely,

David Nails
Solid Waste Operations Manager

W. Mark Storey
Whitman County P.W. Director
