Complaint may be made by the commission of its own motion or by any person or corporation, chamber of commerce, board of trade, or any commercial, mercantile, agricultural or manufacturing society, or any body politic or municipal corporation, by petition or complaint in writing, setting forth any act or thing done or omitted to be done by any public service company or any person, persons, or entity acting as a public service company in violation, or claimed to be in violation, of any provision of law or of any order or rule of the commission.

When two or more public service companies or a person, persons, or entity acting as a public service company, (meaning to exclude municipal and other public corporations) are engaged in competition in any locality or localities in the state, either may make complaint against the other or others that the rates, charges, rules, regulations or practices of such other or others with or in respect to which the complainant is in competition, are unreasonable, unremunerative, discriminatory, illegal, unfair or intending or tending to oppress the complainant, to stifle competition, or to create or encourage the creation of monopoly, and upon such complaint or upon complaint of the commission upon its own motion, the commission shall have power, after notice and hearing as in other cases, to, by its order, subject to appeal as in other cases, correct the abuse complained of by establishing such uniform rates, charges, rules, regulations or practices in lieu of those complained of, to be observed by all of such competing public service companies in the locality or localities specified as shall be found reasonable, remunerative, nondiscriminatory, legal, and fair or tending to prevent oppression or monopoly or to encourage competition, and upon any such hearing it shall be proper for the commission to take into consideration the rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices of the public service company or companies complained of in any other locality or localities in the state.

All matters upon which complaint may be founded may be joined in one hearing, and no motion shall be entertained against a complaint for misjoinder of complaints or grievances or misjoinder of parties; and in any review of the courts of orders of the commission the same rule shall apply and pertain with regard to the joinder of complaints and parties as herein provided: PROVIDED, All grievances to be inquired into shall be plainly set forth in the complaint. No complaint shall be dismissed because of the absence of direct damage to the complainant.

Upon the filing of a complaint, the commission shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the person or company complained of, which shall be accompanied by a notice fixing the time when and place where a hearing will be had upon such complaint. The time fixed for such hearing shall not be less than ten days after the date of the service of such notice and complaint, excepting as herein provided. Rules of practice and procedure not otherwise provided for in this title may be prescribed by the commission.

Every public service company, and all officers, agents and employees of any public service company, shall obey, observe and comply with every order, rule, direction or requirement made by the commission under authority of this title, so long as the same shall be and remain in force. Any public service company which shall violate or fail to comply with any provision of this title, or which fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, rule, or any direction, demand or requirement of the commission, shall be subject to a penalty of not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars for each and every offense. Every violation of any such order, direction or requirement of this title shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation every day's continuance thereof shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense.

RCW 81.04.510 Engaging in business or operating without approval or authority—Procedure.

Whether or not any person or corporation is conducting business requiring operating authority, or has performed or is performing any act requiring approval of the commission without securing such approval, shall be a question of fact to be determined by the commission. Whenever the commission believes that any person or corporation is engaged in operations without the necessary approval or authority required by any provision of this title, it may institute a special proceeding requiring such person or corporation to appear before the commission at a location convenient for witnesses and the production of evidence and bring with him or her or it books, records, accounts, and other memoranda, and give testimony under oath as to his or her or its operations or acts, and the burden shall rest upon such person or corporation of proving that his or her or its operations or acts are not subject to the provisions of this chapter. The commission may consider any and all facts that may indicate the true nature and extent of the operations or acts and may subpoena such witnesses and documents as it deems necessary.

After having made the investigation herein described, the commission is authorized and directed to issue the necessary order or orders declaring the operations or acts to be subject to, or not subject to, the provisions of this title. In the event the operations or acts are found to be subject to the provisions of this title, the commission is authorized and directed to issue cease and desist orders to all parties involved in the operations or acts.

In proceedings under this section, no person or corporation shall be excused from testifying or from producing any book, waybill, document, paper, or account before the commission when ordered to do so, on the ground that the testimony or evidence, book, waybill, document, paper, or account required of him or her or it may tend to incriminate him or her or it or subject him or her or it to penalty or forfeiture; but no person or corporation shall be prosecuted, punished, or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any account, transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he or she or it shall under oath have testified or produced documentary evidence in proceedings under this section: PROVIDED, That no person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution or punishment for any perjury committed by him or her in his or her testimony.

(2) Unless the language or context indicates that a different meaning is intended, the following definitions apply:

"Agent" means a person authorized to transact business for, and in the name of, another.

"Airporter service" means an auto transportation service that starts or ends at a station served by another type of transportation such as, air or rail transportation. "Alternate arrangements for passengers" means the travel arrangements made by an auto transportation company that has accepted a trip booking or reservation from a passenger and that is unable to provide the agreed transportation. The alternate arrangements may require travel by another carrier or mode of transportation at no additional cost to the passenger beyond what the passenger would have paid for the original transportation arrangement.

"Application docket" means a commission publication providing notice of all applications requesting auto transportation operating authority, with a description of the authority requested. The commission sends this publication to all persons currently holding auto transportation authority, to all persons with pending applications for auto transportation authority, to affected local jurisdictions or agencies, and to all other persons who asked to receive copies of the application docket.

"Area" means a defined geographical location. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- (a) A specified city or town;

- (c) A zone, e.g., company designated territory; or
- (d) A route, e.g., area within four road miles of Interstate 5.

"Auto transportation company" means every person owning, controlling, operating, or managing any motor-propelled vehicle not usually operated on or over rails, used in the business of transporting persons over any public highway in this state between fixed termini or over a regular route, and not operating exclusively within the incorporated limits of any city or town.

Re: Passenger Transportation Service

Dear Mr. Mason-West:

We have received information that Executive Limousine Services may be offering passenger transportation services that fall under the jurisdiction of the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (commission).

According to your company website, Executive Limousine Services, LLC provides party bus services. Limousines capable of carrying more than 14 passengers and party buses are considered charter and excursion services under WAC 480-30-036(2) and a certificate of authority issued by the commission.

Operating as a passenger transportation company within Washington without the required certificate is illegal, is considered a gross misdemeanor, and is punishable as such (see RCW 81.68.020, RCW 81.70.220, and WAC 480-30-246). Until and unless the commission grants your company the proper authority, you must cease advertising, offering and/or providing charter/excursion services subject to commission regulation.

To avoid enforcement action by the commission, no later than April 4, 2016, you must either:

- Submit a completed application, file proof of insurance and include the application fee. For questions about the application process, please contact our Licensing Services staff at (360) 664-1222.

OR

- Explain in writing why you feel your business does not require an auto transportation or charter/excursion certificate from the commission. Please explain the nature of your company's operations in detail.

Please direct your written response to Mike Turcott, Compliance Investigator, Transportation Safety, at PO Box 47250, Olympia, WA 98504-7250 or by email at miturcot@utc.wa.gov. Mr. Turcott may also be reached at (360) 664-1174.

Sincerely,

I received a letter dated January 25th 2016 citing the following:

Unlicensed Limousine Carrier

I am familiar with the guidelines to operate a for hire transportation company and we are not operating as a limousine carrier or Charter in the State of WA. In the past we operated as a charter company under our UCR and MC filing with the DOT doing interstate business. We don't operate or intend to operate intra state in Washington. Currently we have a booking and restoration service servicing the limousine and party bus industry. The company Executive Limousine Services you are referencing is my parent company for multiple businesses I own under my SBA 8a status as a minority black owned small business. I worked for years to get approved under this status is do business with the federal government for my construction company which is a subsidiary of Executive Limousines. Under this 8a designation I can't dissolve this company and stay under the SBA umbrella. My construction companies does 30 plus million dollars a year under this designation. I explained that to you in our conversation on the phone on February 1st. I will provide my SBA information showing the designation along with our licensing showing the affiliation.

Best regards

Mr. Turcott:

We are a booking service the as limo.com and other National booking services that I know aren't licensed as limousine carriers. We don't own and operate vehicles so I guess at this point we are at a empass and will have to litigate it in court. I'll have my legal team contact you and the state and see what measures you suggest next.

Dear Mr. Mason,

Thank you for your email. Please review the attached letter. The original is being sent via US Mail.

Executive Limousine Services continues to advertise transportation services (party bus) on its website that fall under the jurisdiction of the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission). Under RCW 81.70.220 no person may engage in the business of a charter party or excursion service carrier without a certificate of authority issued by the Commission. This includes advertising, soliciting, offering or agreeing to provide such service. If Executive Limousine Services continues to advertise and/or provide charter or excursion services without a certificate of authority Commission staff will initiate enforcement action against you.

To avoid enforcement action, please submit a completed application for charter/excursion authority (included). For questions about the application process, please contact our Licensing Services staff at (360) 664-1222.

Sincerely,

Mike:

Here is the information that I sent to the Department of Licensing and they closed their investigation. If I receive any further requests I will have it taken up by my legal team I have a 30 million dollar a year construction company that is a SBA 8a contractor doing business with the federal government and I won't allow this situation to interfere in any way with that operations and will fight this in court until I get resolution and this back and forth is closed with the State of WA.
