RCW 9A.72.020:

“Perjury in the first degree. (1) A person is guilty of perjury in the first degree if in any official proceeding he makes a materially false statement which he knows to be false under an oath required or authorized by law. (2) Knowledge of the materiality of the statement is not an element of this crime, and the actor’s mistaken belief that his statement was not material is not a defense to a prosecution under this section. (3) Perjury in the first degree is a class B felony.”

To Whom it May Concern;

I am requesting mitigation before an administrative law judge to explain the circumstances regarding the penalty imposed against us for inadequate insurance coverage. I would like the opportunity to provide documentation that supports that we had the required coverage and it is the fault of our insurance carrier for dropping the cargo portion of our policy. It was an error on their part, and not intentional on ours.

I would also like an opportunity to provide the judge with our company policies and procedures that insures our compliance.

Respectfully,
