Re: TV-180779– Granting Temporary Household Goods Authority, Subject to Conditions,
Pending Decision on Permanent Authority - THG068607

Dear That's a Wrap Moving Company LLC:

On September 13, 2018, That's a Wrap Moving Company LLC filed an application with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) to provide residential household goods transportation services in the state of Washington. The Commission provisionally grants your application. That's a Wrap Moving Company LLC is now authorized to operate on a temporary basis.

The Commission will evaluate whether That's a Wrap Moving Company LLC qualifies for permanent authority. To qualify for permanent authority, your company must satisfy the following requirements:

1. Personnel responsible for company management and operations must attend a free Commission-sponsored training classes to learn about consumer protection rules, safety regulations and industry-wide tariff provisions that apply to your business. You have been signed up for the February 20, 2019 class in Olympia.

Failure to attend the training will result in denial of your permanent authority.

2. Operate for at least six months.
3. Allow the Commission to review your business operations and records. Commission staff will review records and inspect vehicle(s), and you must receive a satisfactory safety rating as a result of that review.
4. Complete a criminal background check on each person That's a Wrap Moving Company LLC employs or intends to employ. The Commission will not grant permanent authority if any company employee has been convicted of any crime within the past five years involving theft, burglary, assault, sexual misconduct, identity theft, fraud, false statements, or the manufacture, sale, or distribution of a controlled substance. Even if a conviction for any of these offenses is more than five years old, the Commission will not grant permanent authority if it determines that the nature or extent of the crime(s) will likely interfere with the proper operation of a household goods moving company.

5. Pay any outstanding monetary penalty or fee owed to the Commission.
6. Resolve all consumer complaints pending with the Commission.

Enclosed with this letter are copies of That's a Wrap Moving Company LLC's provisional permit, Tariff 15-C, and the Commission rules governing residential household goods carriers. Please review these documents carefully. The Commission may cancel your provisional authority if you violate any applicable state law, Commission rule or tariff provision.

Also enclosed are 10 copies of a self-addressed consumer survey to assist the Commission in evaluating That's a Wrap Moving Company LLC's application. Please provide a copy of this survey to your first 10 customers and ask them to complete and mail it to the Commission at the address on the reverse side.

If you have any questions, please contact Licensing Services at 360-664-1222 or by email at transportation@utc.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Stillwell
Licensing Services Manager
