Re: TV-250105 – Authorizing Transfer of Household Goods Permit

Dear Rainy Side Movers LLC:

On February 25, 2025, Rainy Side Movers LLC, d/b/a Two Men and a Truck Seattle, and Here2There, Inc, filed with the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) a joint application to transfer permanent household goods carrier authority in the state of Washington.

The Commission provisionally grants your application. Rainy Side Movers LLC is now authorized to operate on a temporary basis.

The Commission will evaluate whether Rainy Side Movers LLC qualifies for permanent authority. To qualify for permanent authority, your company must satisfy the following requirements:

1. Operate for at least six months.
2. Personnel responsible for company management and operations must attend a Commission-sponsored training class to learn about the consumer protection rules, safety regulations, and industry-wide tariff provisions that apply to your business. You must sign up for training on the commission's website at www.utc.wa.gov/hhctraining. Click on the "Online Registration Form" and complete the required fields.
3. Allow the Commission to review your business operations and records. Commission staff will review records and inspect vehicle(s), and you must receive a satisfactory safety rating as a result of that review.
4. Complete a criminal background check on each person Rainy Side Movers LLC employs or intends to employ. The Commission will not grant permanent authority if any company employee has been convicted of any crime within the past five years involving theft, burglary, assault, sexual misconduct, identity theft, fraud, false statements, or the manufacture, sale, or distribution of a controlled substance. Even if a conviction for any of these offenses is more than five years old, the Commission will not grant permanent authority if it determines that the nature or extent of the crime(s) will likely interfere with the proper operation of a household goods moving company.

5. Pay any outstanding monetary penalty or fee owed to the Commission.
6. Resolve all consumer complaints pending with the Commission.

Enclosed is a consumer survey to assist the Commission in evaluating Rainy Side Movers LLC's application. Please provide a copy of this survey with return postage to each of the company's customers.

Rainy Side Movers LLC must comply with state laws, Commission rules, and the provisions of Tariff 15-C. Failure to do so will result in Commission enforcement action, up to and including revocation of the company's permit.
