Hi Andrew,

Thank you so much for your diligence in fact-checking and ensuring that we are comfortable with the information that is released in the staff comments. I really appreciate that.

To answer your questions below: Yes, we are okay including the numbers below on a non-confidential basis. The incremental cost calculation workbook contains confidential information, but the aggregate percentage numbers below are not confidential. And yes, please feel free to use this email as confirmation of that fact.

Thanks,
Ariel

Hi Ariel – I hope your Tuesday is going well. I just wanted to touch base with you to make certain that 1) you are okay with including the below information in the table in the staff comments, and 2) that you don't have any concerns with me placing this e-mail string in the docket so that we have a record indicating that you're okay with this.

Please let me know if you're amenable to both of those items. Thanks!

Andrew,
Here are the numbers for the All Resources columns for Pacific Power.

Thanks,
Ariel

Hi Ariel – Here’s what I’ve got in the staff comments:

Table 2: Investor-Owned Utilities’ Reported Incremental Cost Percentages, 2017 and 2018

	2017		2018
	Required Resources	All Resources	Required Resources	All Resources
Avista	(0.2 %)	(0.1 %)	*	*
Pacific Power ^[1]	0.6 %	0.49 %	0.7 %	0.61 %
PSE	1.1 %	1.4 %	1.4 %	1.4 %

It’s essentially taking the “Calculation 1” and “Calculation 2” from the incremental cost template and aggregating that data in table format.

Look forward to hearing what you can tell me with Pooja. Thanks.
