DOCKET NO. UT-050606

DECLARATION OF SUSAN E. WEIS

16
17 I, Susan E. Weis, hereby declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of 18 Washington that the following statements are true and correct.

19 1. My husband and I own a lot in the Suncadia Resort. I am also the wife of the 20 President of Inland Telephone Company.

21 2. On Saturday, June 10, 2006, I attended a meeting of the Suncadia property owners.
22 During the course of that meeting, a question was asked by a person in the audience, unrelated to
23 me and unknown to me, why Suncadia was not using a telephone provider located in the State of 24 Washington. The response of the representative of Suncadia Resort was that "The local provider of

1 telephone, cable and high-speed Internet was not capable of providing the level of service that was
2 expected." The statement was made in front of approximately 50 people, most of them lot owners
3 in the Suncadia Resort.

4 3. The statement that Inland, the local telephone company, is not capable of providing
5 the expected quality of service for telecommunications, Internet and cable TV services is not true.
6 However, that is the impression that was given to the property owners in the Suncadia Resort by the 7 representatives of Suncadia.

8 4. During the meeting, the representative of Suncadia Resort stated that a lot owner
9 would be charged $2,300 for installation of telecommunications service. The lot owners were also
10 told that it would cost $120 per month to receive a bundled offering of telephone, Internet and cable
11 TV services however, Internet and cable TV would not be available until the first of the year. The 12 services are not available on an individual basis.
