Dear Sirs,

I am extremely dismayed at the prospect of Avista becoming a subsidiary of Hydro One, Ontario, Canada.

True patriotism - love of country - demands that one's country be kept as self-sufficient and free of foreign control as possible.

Our forefathers fought for this. Are today's leaders going to throw away their sacrifice and our regional and national interests?

If the present management can't keep Avista American and independent, then we need new management.
