JUDGE DOROSHKIN: So there is already an exhibit designated as SP-2 filed in this docket. MR. FUKANO: I see. May it be redesignated as SP-2B? JUDGE DOROSHKIN: Why don't you can we redesignate this as SP-4? Let's do that instead. MR. FUKANO: Very good. JUDGE DOROSHKIN: And then, Mr. Harrison, do you have any objection to the admission of this exhibit?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	questions for Mr. Harrison? MR. FUKANO: Not at this time. JUDGE DOROSHKIN: Okay. And then, Mr. Harrison, have you looked into the possibility of filing a tariff? MR. HARRISON: I have. I can start that process, but I was hoping to complete the sale. It's hard to sell a little 39-unit water company. Not too many purchasers are looking for it, so The other possibility is just to give it to the Sunrise Acres people. JUDGE DOROSHKIN: And how long do you anticipate filing a tariff would take? MR. HARRISON: Well, I can start the process. It
