RE: In the Matter of Carbon and Electricity Markets Stakeholder Work Group, Docket UE-190760

In the Matter of Amending, Adopting, and Repealing WAC 480-100-238, Relating to Integrated Resource Planning, Docket UE-190698

TO ALL INTERSTED PERSONS:

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) is actively monitoring weather conditions in advance of the two workshops scheduled this week at the Commission's headquarters in Lacey, Washington. Based on current weather reports, we do not anticipate cancelling either workshop at this time. If conditions deteriorate, however, the Commission may have to cancel either or both workshop(s) on short notice for safety reasons. In the event of a cancelation, the Commission will issue an additional Notice in the impacted docket(s) and reschedule the workshop(s) for a later date.

We also want to remind interested persons who may be traveling from areas impacted by more severe weather conditions that they may attend either or both workshop(s) remotely by telephone. Interested persons may call (360) 407-3810 and enter the following conference identification codes when prompted:

Carbon and Electricity Markets Work Group: 347351

Greenhouse Gas Pollution Costs in Resource Planning: 7201139

Sincerely,
