Re: Request for Mitigation

I am principal of TempStore Moving Company in Seattle, WA. The reason for the request for mitigation is that our company has been in the process of being purchased and the operating authority transferred to a new moving company, called Gentle Giant Moving Company. In the process of changing ownership, the document was overlooked and I created it and mailed it to you in June, 2008.

My error, but wondering if due to the fact that were in the process of a regulatory change, this amount could be mitigated. I believe the authority changeover has been complete and I am working at the company as a consultant.

Sincerely,

Michael Meyer
