RE: Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission v. T & S Transportation & Installation, Inc.
Commission Staff's Response to Application for Mitigation of Penalties
Docket TV-120947

Dear Mr. Danner:

On July 24, 2012, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission issued a $2,100 Penalty Assessment in Docket TV-120947 against T & S Transportation Installation, Inc. for 21 violations of Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 480-15-480, which requires permitted household goods companies to furnish annual reports to the commission no later than May 1 each year.

On August 3, 2012¹, T & S Transportation Installation, Inc. wrote the commission requesting mitigation of penalties (Mitigation Request). In its Mitigation Request, T & S Transportation Installation, Inc. does not dispute that the violation occurred. The company states, "We were not aware of any potential $2,100.00 penalty for a late report as the annual report form details only the 2% fee and the 1% per month fee. We respectfully request any additional late fee be forgiven as not appropriate to apply to a $400 tax. We have had a very difficult year due partly to the economy as well as experiencing two heart attacks and quadruple bypass operation on myself with an additional operation of installing a defibulator unit in my chest at the beginning of the year. While I could have filed the report timelier, cash flow played a roll in accepting the 2% penalties that I was aware of. Again, I respectfully request the Penalty Assessment be forgiven as not appropriate to the tax or circumstances."

It is the company's responsibility to ensure that the regulatory fee and the annual report are filed by the May 1 deadline. On February 29, 2012², Annual Report forms and Regulatory Fee packets were mailed to all regulated permitted household goods companies. In addition to other information, the cover letter informed the regulated company it must complete the annual report form, pay any regulatory fees and return the material by May 1, 2012 to avoid enforcement action. On May 15, 2012³, the commission mailed a letter to those companies that had not yet date, they had incurred a penalty of $900. The letter went on to explain that companies who filed their annual reports no later than May 25, 2012, would receive mitigated penalties of $25 per day, with an additional $25 per day for each instance in the previous five years that the company received a penalty for filing a late report.

T & S Transportation Installation, Inc. filed its annual report on August 3, 2012. T & S Transportation Installation, Inc. did not file its annual report by May 31, 2012, which is 21 business days past the deadline of May 1. The penalty is $100 per day for a total of $2,100. T & S Transportation Installation, Inc. became regulated in February 2007 and has received three penalties for filing a delinquent annual report. T & S Transportation Installation, Inc. received a penalty of $100 in 2008, a penalty of $200 in 2009 and a penalty of $400 in 2010.

Based on the company's delinquent annual report filing in the past, staff does not support mitigating the assessed penalty and recommends the request be denied.

Sharon Wallace, Assistant Director

Dear Regulated Company:

Reference: Your 2011 Annual Report and 2012 Regulatory Fees are due May 1

State law requires you to file an annual report and pay regulatory fees to the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (UTC).

What is required of you?

By May 1, you must:

- Complete and file one paper copy or electronic version of the enclosed 2011 annual report form
- Pay your 2012 regulatory fees

What happens if you do not file a completed annual report and pay regulatory fees on time?

If you do not file your company's completed annual report and pay the regulatory fees by May 1, the UTC will assess a financial penalty of $100 for each business day after May 1 that the report is not filed and $100 for each business day after May 1 the fees are unpaid. You may seek mitigation of the penalties in response to the assessment you receive, after you have filed a completed annual report and paid your regulatory fees. The amount of the penalties the UTC mitigates, if any, will depend on the reasons you were late and whether you have filed late in prior years. If you have not filed your completed annual report or paid your regulatory fees by June 1, 2012, Staff will initiate proceedings to have the UTC revoke your authority to operate in Washington.

What happens if you do not pay the regulatory fees by May 1?

If you do not pay your company's regulatory fees by May 1, you will incur a 2 percent penalty on the amount due and a 1 percent monthly interest charge on the unpaid balance. These amounts apply in addition to the assessment of a penalty of $100 per business day after May 1 that the fees are unpaid.

May you request an extension of time if you are unable to file the annual report or pay your regulatory fees on time?

You may file a written request for an extension to file your completed annual report, but the UTC will not extend the deadline for paying regulatory fees. Any extension request must be filed with the UTC by April 24, 2012, and must state a valid reason for why you need an extension and identify a specific date by which you will file your completed annual report. The UTC will notify you by May 1 whether your request is approved or denied. Even if your request is approved, you will still be liable for penalties and interest payments if you fail to pay your regulatory fees by May 1.

What should you do if your company is no longer operating in Washington?

You may cancel your registration or permit by using the cancellation forms available on our website (see below), but if your company operated in Washington at any time during the 2011 calendar year, you must pay regulatory fees and file a closing annual report based on the months of operation during 2011 even if you cancel your registration or permit.

May you designate any information in your annual report as confidential?

Yes, but if you satisfy two conditions:

- (1) You are eligible to request confidential treatment only if your company is regulated under Title 80 RCW, that is, if you operate an electric, natural gas, telecommunications or water company. Transportation companies, regulated under Title 81 RCW, may not request confidential treatment of documents because the authority for such treatment is found only in RCW 80.04.095. If a Title 81 company files its annual report or fee sheet as confidential, the UTC will not treat it as confidential.
- (2) You must follow the steps for filing confidential documents in WAC 480-07-160. You may find this rule at the UTC website, www.utc.wa.gov/annualreports.

Please note: The regulatory fee sheet portion of your report is not a confidential document and will not be accorded confidential treatment under the rule. The UTC will not, however, disclose credit card information you list on the fee sheet.

May you perform some of these tasks online?

Yes. You may complete the following tasks from the annual reports page at the UTC website www.utc.wa.gov/annualreports:

- Obtain electronic versions of annual report forms
- Pay regulatory fees
- File your report electronically
- Cancel your registration (telecommunications companies) or permit (transportation companies) if your company ceased operations in 2011.

Where do you mail the completed annual report form and regulatory fee payment?

Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission
PO Box 47250
Olympia, WA 98504-7250

Is there any additional information you should file?

- If you are a gas distribution company, please also file both a paper and electronic copy of your Federal Energy Regulatory Commission Form 2.
