RE: Application for Mitigation

Dear Mr. Kopta,

We acknowledge that we submitted our 2014 annual report on May 13, 2015; eight business days from the due date of May 1, 2015. Erroneously, we believed the due date to be May 31, 2015. As soon as we realized that we had inadvertently missed the due date, we contacted Ms. Hancock at your agency; notifying her of the date confusion and immediately made every effort to submit the reports as quickly as possible.

Although we acknowledge inadvertently missing the deadline, our assessed penalty of $800 is quite significant. Based on our prior consistent reporting submitted in a timely manner according to deadlines, we would like to request a reduction in this penalty.

Sincerely,

Jillian Ihly
Vice President
