Dear To Whom It May Concern:

I failed to submit my annual report on time this year normally it was due January 31st and recently was changed to May 1st. The documents I received were completed but not submitted and I apologize for the error. I've completed my report in addition to the payment and penalties and would like to ask for my additional $1000.00 fine to be waived for my error in this matter. I understand the importance of the documents and will be sure to file them in the future in a timely manner.

Sincerely,

La'Keith Asphy
