Leroy Scott
Santamaria Transport LLC
3610 104th St. E.
Tacoma, WA 98446

RE: Household Goods Moving in Washington State

Dear Leroy Scott:

The Utilities and Transportation Commission has information that you are conducting household goods moves within the state of Washington. Advertisements for your household goods services have been found on thumbtack.com. You do not have a valid permit, as required by state law, to conduct this type of work. Conducting household goods moves requires a permit issued by the commission.

To avoid enforcement action, your complete household goods permit application, supporting materials, and application fee must be submitted to the commission by November 5, 2019.

Until you obtain a permit, you must immediately cease operating as a household goods mover in Washington State. Operating as a household goods mover without the required permit is illegal and subject to a penalty of $5,000 per violation.¹ This means that you may receive this penalty for each day you operate in violation of the law.

You must also immediately cease advertising as a household goods mover in Washington State. Advertising for the transportation of property for compensation in Washington without a proper permit is against the law. The penalty for advertising without a permit is $5,000 per violation. This means that you may receive a penalty for each and every advertisement. At this time, the commission has documented advertisements for household goods moving services from Santamaria Transport LLC.

Santamaria Transport LLC

Oct. 22, 2019

If you advertise or operate as a household goods mover without a permit, the commission will take enforcement action against you. Such action may include the above-mentioned financial penalties; and you will be served with a subpoena and be required to appear before a judge.

Again, to avoid enforcement action, your complete application, supporting materials, and application fee must be submitted to the commission by November 5, 2019. In addition, you must stop operating and advertising as a household goods mover immediately.

If you have questions about the household goods laws, please contact Brian Braun, Compliance Investigator, at (360) 664-1129.

Should you decide to apply for a household goods moving permit, please note that you still may not operate as a household goods mover in Washington state until you have received a permit. To request a permit application, please call (360) 664-1222. You may also download an application from the commission's website at www.utc.wa.gov/mover.

FAQs

What is your typical process for working with a new customer?

The best way is to speak with our customers directly on the phone. Once on the phone we gather exactly what the customer needs, best contact information, and next steps in the moving process. We make sure the the customer is aware of exactly what our company does so we are on the same page.

What education and/or training do you have that relates to your work?

I have over 10 years experience in the moving industry

How did you get started doing this type of work?

We started helping people move more than 15 years ago. Ever since then we have been in business and we love helping people move. Making your life easier one move at a time.

What types of customers have you worked with?

I've worked with anyone needing to move a 5 bedroom house across country to a small apartment move down the street. We enjoy working with all types of people and all types of moves.

What advice would you give a customer looking to hire a provider in your area of work?

It's really important to work with your moving company to make sure you are prepared for your move. If not, your move can end up costing you a lot more time and money. Always hire a proper mover that is licensed and insured that will guarantee they will show up to your move.
