Make sure you book with given time. Don't do what I did and book on short notice. The guys worked hard and fast, but with care. Very respectful, pleasant, listened well.

I would use them again. They were well prepared, knew the POD and got a lot more in than I thought they would. They treated my property like the own. They arrived when they said they would and busted their butts to complete the job.

Marcus S - Hayden, ID 12/8/2018

On time, careful, had the right equipment to make the job easier. Would highly recommend!

RE: Household Goods Moving in Washington State

Dear Matthew Rycraft:

The Utilities and Transportation Commission has information that you are conducting household goods moves within the state of Washington. Advertisements for your household goods services have been found on craigslist.org. You do not have a valid permit, as required by state law, to conduct this type of work. Conducting household goods moves requires a permit issued by the commission.

To avoid enforcement action, your complete household goods permit application, supporting materials, and application fee must be submitted to the commission by October 28, 2019.

Until you obtain a permit, you must immediately cease operating as a household goods mover in Washington State. Operating as a household goods mover without the required permit is illegal and subject to a penalty of $5,000 per violation.¹ This means that you may receive this penalty for each day you operate in violation of the law.

You must also immediately cease advertising as a household goods mover in Washington State. Advertising for the transportation of property for compensation in Washington without a proper permit is against the law. The penalty for advertising without a permit is $5,000 per violation. This means that you may receive a penalty for each and every advertisement. At this time, the commission has documented advertisements for household goods moving services from Rocket Van Lines.

If you advertise or operate as a household goods mover without a permit, the commission will take enforcement action against you. Such action may include the above-mentioned financial penalties; and you will be served with a subpoena and be required to appear before a judge.

Again, to avoid enforcement action, your complete application, supporting materials, and application fee must be submitted to the commission by October 28, 2019. In addition, you must stop operating and advertising as a household goods mover immediately.

If you have questions about the household goods laws, please contact Brian Braun, Compliance Investigator, at (360) 664-1129.

Should you decide to apply for a household goods moving permit, please note that you still may not operate as a household goods mover in Washington state until you have received a permit. To request a permit application, please call (360) 664-1222. You may also download an application from the commission's website at www.utc.wa.gov/mover.

Sincerely,

Desc	At 12:59pm on December 10, 2020 I called the phone number listed on Rocket Van Lines' website in the "contact us" section. (208) 446-5657. The call was picked up and the person on the other end of the call identified themselves as Matt. I asked Matt that I was calling in regards to the contact form I filled out a few days prior. Matt asked for my first and last name, and I provided him the details I used when I filled out the contact form.

Matt located the form I had filled out and stated that he did have availability to provide a move on December 30, 2020.

I told Matt that I was looking for a quote and asked him what charges I could expect.

Matt told me that they charge $125.00 per hour for two men and a 26' truck with a two hour minimum. Matt told me that they are located in Post Falls, and are "about 15 minutes over the line to just about anywhere in Spokane Valley."

Matt told me that charges start when they leave their shop, and that he estimated about two to three hours to load, travel time from Spokane Valley to Liberty Lake, and another two hours to unload. Matt said to expect about five or six hours for the move.

I told Matt that I would need to discuss with my wife and asked him what the best way to book the move would be. He said that I could just call them back and he would be able to book me at that time.

I thanked Matt for taking my call and terminated the call at 1:04pm.
