RE: Household Goods Moving in Washington State

Dear Igor Kruhlyi (IK Moving Services LLC):

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (commission) has information that you are conducting household goods moves within the state of Washington. Advertisements for your household goods services have been found on <https://ikmovers.com>. Conducting or advertising household goods moves requires a permit issued by the commission. You do not have a valid permit, as required by state law, to conduct this type of work.

Until you obtain a permit, you must immediately cease operating as a household goods mover in Washington State. Operating as a household goods mover without the required permit is illegal and subject to a penalty of $5,000 per violation.<sup>1</sup> This means that you may receive this penalty for each day you operate in violation of the law.

You must also immediately cease advertising as a household goods mover in Washington State. Advertising for the transportation of property for compensation in Washington without a proper permit is against the law. The penalty for advertising without a permit is $5,000 per violation. This means that you may receive a penalty for each and every advertisement. At this time, the commission has documented advertisements for household goods moving services from IK Moving Services LLC.

If you advertise or operate as a household goods mover without a permit, the commission will take enforcement action against you. Such action may include the above-mentioned

- a) Submit completed household goods moving permit application, proof of insurance, supporting materials, and application fee. To request a permit application, please call (360) 664-1222. You may also download an application from the commission's website at <https://www.utc.wa.gov/MovingCompanies>.

Good afternoon,

I am looking for someone to move my Mother-in-Law's stuff into a storage unit. She has moved to an assisted living facility, and I need to move what is left of her stuff into storage. Will have everything in boxes by 10/26/2023. It is a small 1-bedroom home and most of her furniture and stuff are still there. We are not taking any of the appliances.

Her address is on E 15th Ave and we have secured a 10X20 storage unit on E Queen Ave.

How much do you charge and how soon can I be scheduled?
