YOU MUST RESPOND WITHIN 15 DAYS OF THIS NOTICE

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) believes that Influx Development, LLC (Influx or Company) violated Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 19.122.055(1)(a) by failing to notify the one-number locate service and causing damage to an underground gas facility.

RCW 19.122.055(1)(a) states, in part, that excavators who fail to notify a one-number locator service and cause damage to an underground gas facility are subject to a civil penalty of not more than $10,000 for each violation.

Commission Staff (Staff) conducted an investigation that included reviewing damage reports, investigation reports, the One Call Center database, and communications with the Company. The documents reviewed identified a natural gas event that involved Influx Development LLC (Influx or Company) damaging a natural gas facility while excavating without a valid locate ticket.

Staff reviewed the documents, reports, and communications with the Safety Committee and agreed with the Safety Committee's findings and recommendations.

The Commission hereby notifies you that it is assessing a $1,000 penalty (Penalty Assessment) against you on the following grounds:

1. Alleged Violation(s):

On June 2, 2025, Influx was excavating at 1708 2nd Avenue North, Seattle, Washington. While excavating, Influx workers struck and damaged an underground Puget Sound Energy (PSE) natural gas facility. The Damage Information Reporting Tool (DIRT) report submitted by PSE on July 13, 2025, indicated that Influx was excavating without a valid request to locate underground utilities.

2. Analysis:

The alleged violation concerns RCW 19.122.055(1)(a), which states, in part, that an excavator must contact the one-number locate center before beginning excavation. The Gas First Response (GFR) submitted by PSE states that on June 2, 2025, a 5/8" natural gas service line was damaged. The report explains that Influx was moving a pile of dirt using hand tools and did not have a locate request when the line was damaged. The ELM report confirms that Influx did not have a valid locate ticket when it caused damage to the gas line.

On August 20, 2025, Staff contacted Influx requesting further information regarding this damage incident. On September 2, 2025, the Company responded with photos and an explanation that the gas line they hit was too shallow. Staff responded and explained that despite the shallow gas line, the Company was still responsible for having a valid request for locates before it started excavation.

Staff reviewed the One Call Center database and found locate ticket request #25230496 for this location that was requested on the day the damage occurred.

The Commission considered the following factors in determining the appropriate penalty amount for the violation(s):

1. How serious or harmful the violation is to the public.
This incident could have been harmful to Company workers, utility technicians, nearby homeowners, and the public, and could have resulted in serious injury and loss of property.
2. Whether the violation is intentional.
This violation appears to be due to negligence by Influx rather than a lack of knowledge regarding Washington State's dig law. Over the past 12 months, Influx has submitted 27 requests to the One Call Center for locates. This demonstrates the Companies knowledge of requirements and its responsibility to contact the one-number locate service before beginning excavation
3. The likelihood of recurrence.
The likelihood of recurrence depends on Influx Development's actions going forward, and its ability to ensure that its contract locator and its contract locator's processes are sufficient to comply with the requirements of the dig law.
4. The Company's previous violations and penalties.
On September 21, 2018, the Commission mailed an Alleged Violation of Washington Dig Law letter to Influx. The letter included detailed information about Washington State's Underground Utility Damage Prevention Act, requirements for submitting utility locate requests before excavating, and the possibility of penalties for each violation. The Commission mailed the letter after receiving a report of damage caused by Influx on June 20, 2018, that occurred because the Company failed to submit a request to locate underground utilities before excavating.

The Commission has considered these factors and agrees with the Safety Committee's findings of probable violation and penalty recommendation, as follows:

- $1,000 penalty for one violation of RCW 19.122.055(1)(a) with an offer to suspend an $800 portion of the penalty for one year, and then waive it, subject to the conditions that:
 - 1) Company management and field crew responsible for excavation complete Dig Safe Training provided through the National Utility Contractors Association (NUCA) within 90 days of this Penalty Assessment;
 - 2) The Company must submit documentation of training completion to the Commission; and
 - 3) The Company must not commit any further violations of RCW 19.122 within 12 months of the date of this Penalty Assessment.

These facts, if proven at a hearing and not rebutted or explained, are sufficient to support the Penalty Assessment.

Your penalty is due and payable now. If you believe the violation(s) did not occur, you may deny committing the violation(s) and contest the penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. Or, if there is a reason for the violation(s) that you believe should excuse you from the penalty, you may ask for mitigation (reduction) of the penalty through evidence presented at a hearing or in writing. The Commission will grant a request for a hearing only if material issues of law or fact require consideration of evidence and resolution in a hearing. Any request to contest the violation(s) or for mitigation of the penalty must include a written statement of the reasons supporting that request. Failure to provide such a statement will result in denial of the request. See RCW 81.04.405.

If you properly present your request for a hearing and the Commission grants that request, the Commission will review the evidence supporting your dispute of the violation(s) or application for mitigation in a Brief Adjudicative Proceeding before an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge will consider the evidence and will notify you of their decision.

You must act within 15 days after receiving this Penalty Assessment to do one of the following:

- Pay the $1,000 penalty amount due; or
- Pay $200 and notify the Commission that you accept the offer to suspend an $800 portion of the penalty amount subject to the following conditions:

 - The Company must not incur any additional violations of RCW 19.122 within 12 months of the date of this Penalty Assessment; or
