- 1 WAC 480-122-010 Definitions.
- 2 For purposes of this chapter:
- 3 (1) "Local exchange company" means a telecommunications company providing
- 4 local exchange telecommunications service.
- 5 (2) "Department" means the department of social and health services.
- 6 (3) "Washington telephone assistance program" means: the program of local
- 7 exchange service discounts administered by the department.
- 8 (a) A discount on residential service connection fees of fifty percent;
- 9 (b) A waiver of the deposit on local residential exchange service;
- 10 (c) A discounted flat rate on one access line for local residential exchange
- 11 service for eligible persons subscribing to the lowest available local exchange flat
- 12 rate service, where that rate, including any federal end user access charge or
- 13 other charge necessary to obtain local exchange service, is greater than the
- 14 telephone assistance rate set by the commission. Where available, single-party
- 15 service shall qualify as the lowest available flat rate for persons otherwise
- 16 eligible, who are sixty years of age or older, or who receive
- 17 medical assistance.
- 18 (4) "Eligible person" means an adult recipient of department-administered
- 19 programs for the financially needy which provide continuing financial or medical
- 20 assistance, food stamps, or supportive services to persons in their own homes.
- 21 The department shall notify the participants of their eligibility.
- 22 (5) "Eligibility period" means a one-year period of eligibility as certified by the
- 23 department. The eligibility
- 24 period shall run from July 1 through June 30 of the succeeding year.
- 25 (6) "Charge necessary to obtain local exchange service" means the charge for
- 26 the lowest available grade of residential flat rate service, any federal end user
- 27 access charge, any charge for nonoptional extended area service and any
- 28 charge for nonoptional mileage. It does not include any charge for customer
- 29 premises equipment or any applicable taxes.
- 30 (4) "Switched access line" means, for the purpose of applying the telephone
- 31 assistance program excise tax, a communication facility extending from a

32	serving central office to a customer's premises to provide access to and from the 33	switched telecommunications network for message toll service and local calling.
34	When used with PBX or Centrex-CU a switched access line may also be referred 35	to as a trunk.
36	(8) "Connection fees" means any service charge applicable to the connection of
37	a switched access line to establish new service, but not including line extension
38	charges or any delinquent balance owed to the local exchange company.
39	(5) Radio communications service company has the meaning found in
40	80.04.010 RCW, except that for the purposes of this section it includes only
41	those companies providing two-way voice communication as a common
42	carrier.
43	(6)"Eligible telecommunications carrier" (ETC) means a carrier designated
44	as an ETC pursuant to 47 U.S.C. 214(e).

51	WAC 480-122-020 Washington telephone assistance program rate.
52	The commission shall set by order the telephone assistance rate to be paid by
53	program participants for local service. Every eligible telecommunications
54	carrier (ETC) must offer the telephone assistance rates and discounts in 55	accordance with RCW 80.36.410 through 475. Every non-ETC local
56	exchange company must offer the telephone assistance rates and
57	discounts in accordance with RCW 80.36.410 through 475 when 100 or
58	more of its access lines are subscribed to for residential service. Radio
59	communications service companies that are not ETCs may offer the
60	telephone assistance rates and discounts in accordance with RCW
61	80.36.410 through 475.

111	WAC 480-122-060 Telephone assistance excise tax.
112	Beginning November 1, 1992, Wireline local exchange companies shall collect a
113	telephone assistance excise tax on all switched access lines of thirteen cents per 114	month in an amount set by the commission by order at the request of the 115	department. Each party line subscriber customer shall be assessed the 116	telephone assistance excise tax in full. The telephone assistance excise tax shall
117	be separately identified on each ratepayer's bill as the "Washington telephone
118	assistance program." Money collected from the telephone assistance excise tax
119	shall be transferred to a telephone assistance fund administered by the 120	department.

- 135 administered by the department the following amounts: (1) The difference
- 136 between the telephone assistance rate set by the commission by order under
- 137 WAC 480-122-020 and the lowest available local exchange service flat rate, as
- 138 specified in WAC 480-122-010 (3)(c);
- 139 (2) The discounted portion of the service connection fees;
- 140 (3) Applicable taxes not billed to the subscriber;
- 141 (4) Net uncollectibles directly resulting from the waiver of local exchange service
- 142 deposits for eligible subscribers, provided that any partial payment collected for
- 143 disconnected accounts shall be applied first to the payment of the local service
- 144 bill; with the total for any account not to exceed two times the telephone
- 145 assistance rate; and
