I am writing to request that you adopt the proposed rule for an "opt-in" white pages system. Although I grew up using the white pages (I'm nearly 60 years old), I haven't used a paper phone book in many years. I don't know anyone who doesn't use Google or an online search to find the phone numbers they need. We should be using all that paper for some more productive purpose.

Thanks for considering my comment. -- Rod Brown
