RE: Puget Sound Energy
Docket UG-210729

Dear Ms. Maxwell:

On October 29, 2021, the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) entered Order 01, requiring natural gas companies to use a NPV methodology reflecting a seven-year timeframe for calculating natural gas line extension allowances.

On November 17, 2021, Puget Sound Energy filed tariff revisions meeting, in the view of Commission Staff, the requirement of this order. The effective date of these revisions is January 1, 2021

Sincerely,

David Panco
