PSE in October 2010, I was Manager of Operations and Manager of Power Generation for PPL Montana in Colstrip, Montana. As such, I was responsible for planning, engineering, and budgeting for the four unit generating station at Colstrip, which included capital improvement projects, engineering, and operation and maintenance of the generating assets.

Prior to joining PPL Montana, I was the Environmental Health and Safety

Manager and Construction Manager for Agrifos Fertilizer in Pasadena, Texas. I also worked for over 16 years in a variety of engineering, project management, and environmental management in the mining industry.
