RE: Resource Adequacy Meeting, RCW 19.280.065, Docket UE-210096

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS:

On Tuesday, November 4, 2025, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (Commission) and the Washington Department of Commerce (Commerce or Department) will hold a resource adequacy meeting focused on winter readiness as part of an extended statewide discussion on the adequacy of energy resources to serve customer needs. Presentations and discussions will include winter assessments, general winter readiness data, and the role of the gas system in meeting the state's energy demand.

RCW 19.280.065 requires the following:

(1) At least once every 12 months, the Department and the Commission shall jointly convene a meeting of representatives of the investor-owned utilities and consumer-owned utilities, regional planning organizations, transmission operators, and other interested persons and organizations to discuss the current, short-term, and long-term adequacy of energy resources to serve the state's electric needs, and address specific steps the utilities can take to coordinate planning in light of the significant changes to the Northwest's power system including, but not limited to, technological developments, retirements of legacy baseload power generation resources, and changes in laws and regulations affecting power supply options. The Department and Commission shall provide a summary of these meetings including any specific action items, to the governor and legislature within 60 days of the meeting. (2) This section expires January 1, 2031.

The November winter readiness meeting will be the last of three resource adequacy meetings hosted by the Department and the Commission in calendar year 2025. The first two meetings covered summer readiness and general non-seasonal resource adequacy, respectively.

The meeting agenda will be posted in advance of the workshop on the webpage of both the Commission and Commerce. Materials from the prior two meetings held in 2025, as well as previous years' meetings, can be found on both pages, and a link to the recording can be found on the Commission webpage, as well as within docket UE-210096.
